KILLED SON-IN-LAW

Booth Sutton Shot By Sweeney Morgan.

At about seven o'clock Saturday night occurred one of the most regrettable tragedies that has taken place in Garrard County in a number of years, when Sweeney Morgan killed his son-in-law, Booth Sutton, at the home of Frank Holtzclaw, another son-in-law of Mr. Morgan, on Crab Orchard pike.

The facts as they appeared at the Coroner's inquest seem to be as follows: Mr. Sutton had been drinking and trouble occurred between him and his wife at their home. Mrs. Sutton left home and went to the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Holtzclaw, who lives about two or three hundred yards from the Sutton home. Sutton followed and came to the Holtzclaw home with a shotgun.

Another quarrel ensued and Mrs. King, a sister of Mr. Morgan interposed. At this time Mrs. Sutton is said to have gone to the home of a neighbor, Mr. Bruce Lawson and telephoned to Sheriff Ballard to come and arrest her husband.

At about this time Mr. Morgan is said to have learned of the trouble from a little son of Mr. Frank Holtzclaw, and with a shotgun, went from his home to the Holtzclaw home, a distance of about one hundred yards. On arriving there, as testified by Mrs. King, Mr. Morgan said, "Get up from there Grace", and fired at Sutton, who was sitting on the porch, from a distance of about ten feet. The shot entered just over the heart, cutting the aorta. Mr. Morgan says that he shot in self defense, and that Mr. Sutton was rising from his seat and was about to shoot him. The body was found around the corner of the house about forty feet from the scene of the shooting by the Sheriff on his arrival, and beside it was a shot gun.

After the Coroner's inquest, Mr. Sutton's body was removed to his own home and burial took place in the Lancaster Cemetery Tuesday.

Mr. Morgan was granted a guard until after his examining trial, which will be held today.

The parties of this tragedy were prominent in the community. Mr. Sutton being a well to do young farmer and carpenter and a prominent member of the Odd Fellows Lodge, while Mr. Morgan is one of the County's most prominent farmers and stockmen. Mr. Morgan has engaged Judge L. L. Walker and J. I. Hamilton for his attorneys and the prosecution has engaged J. E. Robinson to assist the Commonwealth.

The campaign committee will do their best to arrange for a big Democratic day at this occasion. Democrats in all parts of the County are urged to do their part in advertising this speaking date.

NO MORE NEAR-BEER.

A bombshell was thrown into the ranks of the proprietors of soft drink stands in Stanford at the regular monthly meeting of the City Council when the license on each place was raised from $250. to $1,200. A numerously signed petition was presented to the Council for its increase. The petition was circulated and presented by the members of the W. C. T. U. of this city. Five of the councilmen voted for the increase and one against it. The increase goes into effect when the annual license expires. The license of J. C. Lynn expires January 1st and of Mat Martin next July.

McFARLAND.

Louis Landram on Tuesday evening received a telegram from New York telling of the death in that city of his brother-in-law, Capt. W. C. McFarland. The illness had been brief, though Capt. McFarland had not been a well man since the Spanish-American war, in which he received a serious wound at the battle of San Juan hill. He was a graduate of West Point and was retired at close of the Spanish war by reason of the disability received. He was captain of E company, 16th U. S. Infantry, but was breveted a major upon retirement. Since leaving active service in the army he has made his home in New York City. The remains were interred at West Point Military Academy, where his wife was buried about three years ago. Capt. McFarland is well remembered by many of Danville's citizens, as his regiment was stationed at Lancaster for a number of years when regular barracks were maintained in that city. His wife, who was Miss Addie Landram, was a graduate of Caldwell College, now Kentucky College for Women. He is survived by a son, Dr. Wm. Landram McFarland, of New York City. —Danville Messenger.

DEMOCRACY'S BANNER DAY

Campaign Opening at Winchester
ter Most Auspicious Event

Many Thousand People Listen To
Oratory And Enjoy Burgoo
And Barbecued Meals

The formal opening of the Democratic campaign at Winchester, Saturday, was as delightful as the occasion was auspicious. The sun never shone more brightly on the "Old Kentucky Home," the atmosphere was never more delicious and invigorating, a warmer welcome was never extended than by the Democracy of the splendid county of Clark and everything seemed to work together to make the event one of the never to be forgotten by the many thousands of enthusiastic men and women who attended. Every detail for the comfort and enjoyment of their guests had been carefully arranged and nothing left undone by the general chairman, Judge John E. Garner, Judge John M. Stevenson, Senator A. H. Rensick, Steve Vaught, and the able and willing corps of assistants, while the people of town and county vied with each other in doing everything in their power to add to the delights of the day. The city had been decorated in gala attire and flags and bunting floated everywhere.

The fair grounds were selected for the place of speaking, and a shed erected in front of the mammoth amphitheater for the speakers and hundreds of men of prominence. At 10:30 Judge Garner made a stirring and witty address of welcome, followed by Chairman J. Campbell, Cantrell, of the State campaign committee, who thanked in warmest terms the good people for their splendid efforts to make the opening memorable, said a few words of cheer to the people who crowded the amphitheater and filled every conceivable space in all the region aroundabout and introduced Congressman Hardy, of Texas, as the first speaker, who eloquently told of the accomplishments of the administration and urged the retention in office of the man who made them possible and fulfilled every promise of the convention that nominated him. His speech was logical, forceful and vote winning.

Following his address, which was listened to with rapt attention, the onslaught on the feast of burgoo, fried chicken, barbecued beef and lamb, with many other good things, began, and though the charge was heavy and continuous the impression was hardly noticeable and the heavy laden tables would have withstood the charge of several thousands more and still groaned with their weight of well prepared edibles. It was a real feast from which no one went away empty. On their own initiative and at their own expense, the ladies had prepared another feast in a large tent in honor of the vice president's charming wife, where the speakers and others enjoyed a real banquet, served by beautiful girls and comely matrons and every body made to feel that it was good to be there. The tent was gaily decorated and the ensemble was beautiful.

The inner man having been satisfied, Gov. Stanley introduced the leading speaker of the day, Vice President Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana, who was received with tumultuous applause, and his was a most captivating address, full of hope and confidence. Mr. Marshall is a born orator and possessing the ability to tell an anecdote well, he soon caught his audience which listened to his effort with wild cheers and applause. There were few more popular speakers than Woodrow Wilson's running mate, "the tail to his kite," as he called himself, and his eloquent recital of constructive work accomplished during the three and a half years that the Democrats had been in power, made a lasting impression on the multitude, which drank in every word with avidity, and seemed fully to agree with him that God had raised up Woodrow Wilson for his great work.

Congressman W. J. Fields then introduced the Hon. Thomas J. C. Griffin, of Alabama, whose fame as an orator is nation-wide, and for an hour he kept the vast throng applauding or convulsed with laughter at the stories he told so innocently. It was a great speech and kept the crowd to its end, though more than half of it had to stand to hear it.

Chairman A. B. Rouse, of the speakers' bureau, could hardly have made better selection for the occasion as line of speech.

The great crowd, which came from many parts of the state and was variously estimated at from 10,000 to 20,000, reluctantly took its leave, filled with enthusiasm and intent on doing all in its power to re-elect Wilson and Marshall for four more years of patriotic service.

There have been many grand openings of Democratic campaigns in Kentucky, but the one at Winchester eclipsed them all and the Democracy of the state owes the people of Clark county a debt they can hardly repay. Everybody at all acquainted with the public spiritedness of those wide-awake citizens, knew that they would strive to outdo all other occasions, and gloriously did they fulfill the confidence. And to them he honor and glory now and always. They certainly emphasized the ambitious little city's place on the map and wrote her name high on the scroll of fame.

Chairman Cantrell expressed his real delight over the auspicious opening of the campaign, that must result in a famous victory for Democracy and is prouder of the county of his congressional district than ever. It was indeed a glorious day for the cause of the people and a forerunner of a victory that will surprise the nation, which has been led to think that Kentucky is a doubtful state.

The enthusiasm engendered by the glorious meeting at Winchester will spread all over Kentucky and with such candidates as Wilson and Marshall and such achievements as the Democratic party has to its credit the old commonwealth ought to be good for the Tilden majority, which was 60,000. Kentuckians recognize true worth and faithful service and all who love these qualities will vote to retain the man in office who has done so much for the cause of humanity. Up men, and at 'em.

The President Turned the Trick
Candidate Hughes is greatly worried over the way the president succeeded in averting the railroad strike and deplores the passage of laws in advance of investigation. He is, therefore, attempting to belittle the whole business, but he will have his labor for his pains. As Grover Cleveland said on one occasion, "A condition and not a theory," confronted Mr. Wilson, and he did what the whole country applauded him for doing. The Republicans tried to embarrass the President in the matter, but he turned the trick and came out more than a victor and made himself more solid with the people. The laboring people especially are singing the praises of the man who meets every emergency manfully and successfully.

Easy to Satisfy.

The Republican State Campaign Committee professes to be satisfied with the result of the cost of the performance in trying to make a showing for Hughes in this state, another instance of being thankful for small favors. It is doubtful if Hughes made a vote by his speech in Lexington, while it does not admit of a doubt that he lost very many. Neither his speech nor his presence was inspiring and the crowd, motley as it was, evidently expected better things from the candidate of a once great party. Mr. Hughes' visit demonstrated anew and more fully that the Wilson spirit prevails in this state and that it will be given full force and effect on the 7th of November.

Has Another Think Coming.

"I cannot believe that the splendid spirit which has been shown here today is a mere passing enthusiasm, I hope it means that the people of our State realize that the success of the Republican party in national affairs will advance the welfare of the nation, their own state, and their own homes." Thus spoke Mr. Hughes at Lexington. If the one hundred per cent. candidate really believes his own words he has another think coming. Kentuckians are usually polite to visitors and show them courtesy, but they do not accept as truth everything that is told them. Mr. Hughes is likewise mistaken about enthusiasm. It was not great to begin with and was entirely manufactured by the campaign committee and its hirelings. There is nothing about Mr. Hughes or his speeches to enthrall over, and he who seems to stop over on them does so either for pay or for pretense. Kentucky generally is pretty well satisfied with conditions under Wilson and cannot be made to realize, if such a realization were possible, that return of the Republican party to power would advance their welfare. They believe that return of that party to the control of the government means a return to special privileges by the taxation of many for the benefit of the few. Mr. Hughes do not permit yourself to be fooled. Kentucky may be doubtful sometimes, but there is no doubt about her this time, she is for Wilson first, last and all times.

The Colonel Disgusted.

Authentic report is that Colonel Roosevelt is much more obsessed with the desire to defeat Wilson than the election of Hughes, which he regards as a secondary consideration. The Colonel's antipathy for Wilson is because of the fact that the president has eclipsed him in the service of the country and relegated him from the front page and from the limelight. It is also said that Roosevelt is disaffected with the Hughes performance in the west, that he is almost ready to quit playing second fiddle in the great By campaign, as he calls it. Instead of talking Americanism, he says Hughes' talks civil service reform and instead of denouncing the German American alliance, denounces extravagance in governmental expenditure. He believes he has been tricked and is almost ready to quit. The Democrats, however, will object as he is making more votes for Wilson than it is possible for him to make for Hughes.

Keeping Yourself Well

DRIVING OUT CATARRH
If people knew how the presence of catarrh is a constant menace, they would have none of it. It infects some part of the delicately adjusted body and makes it inefficient, thus throwing on the other organs more than their share of work. It affords a carefully prepared remedy for the germs of colds, grip, tuberculosis and pneumonia. It so disarranges Nature's delicate plans as to make possible asthma, hay fever and other respiratory disorders. It spreads until it becomes systemic, thus involving many organs and debilitating the entire system with serious results.

Catarrh is easily neglected, and it rarely gets well of itself. It needs proper medicinal correction. For almost half a century many thousands have found help in Peppin's, a valuable tonic with special efficacy in catarrhal conditions. The aim is to clean out waste matter, to dispel the catarrhal inflammation, and to tone up the whole system. It has done all this and even more for catarrhal sufferers. What more is the best proof of what it will do. You may rely on Peppin's.

In tablet form it is pleasant to take and easy to administer. Peppin's Tablets are a reliable laxative and liver tonic. They have no unpleasant effects on the stomach. Do not form a habit. 10c, 25c, 50c. The Peppin Company, Columbus, O.
